

Richard Campbell

Year of Call: 2007

Areas of Law: Civil Fraud, Commercial, Insolvency, Personal Injury and Travel, Professional Negligence, Property Litigation

Richard accepts instructions on a wide range of civil and commercial matters. He regularly appears in court for both trials and interlocutory applications as well as undertaking a range of pleading and advisory work.

Personal Injury/Travel and Conflicts of Law

Richard is regularly instructed to advise and appear in matters pertaining to personal injury and travel claims and is happy doing both Claimant and Defendant work.

Richard undertakes a wide-variety of personal injury work, including employers, occupiers and public liability cases and advises on matters of liability and quantum.

Richard is also regularly instructed in accident and illness claims, on behalf of both Claimants and Defendants, being brought under the Package Travel and Regulations as well as the Athens (ships/cruises) and Montreal (air carriage) Conventions and has recently provided seminars on their practical application and procedural perils and pitfalls. Richard has also acted in claims arising from flight delays and cancellations under the Denied Boarding Regulations.

Richard also undertakes work focusing on jurisdictional disputes and cases involving conflicts of law such as enforcement of foreign judgments, claims against foreign Defendants and questions of applicable law and jurisdiction.

Commercial and Insolvency

Richard advises drafts pleadings and appears in court in a wide variety of commercial claims and issues with particular expertise in matters involving insolvency and bankruptcy, consumer credit, contractual disputes, company law and PPI.

Property

Richard also has a strong property law practice and accepts instructions from both landlords and tenants on matters concerning forfeiture of commercial properties, possession claims, dilapidation claims and general disputes between landlords and tenants.

Further Information

Prior to joining 3 Hare Court, Richard was Head of Legal Content at Informa's CPDcast.com, an online legal resource and legal training provider. As well as interviewing leading members of the legal profession, Richard also lectured on a wide variety of common law topics. Richard is also a contributor to the Chambers' Personal Injury and City Lawyer bulletins.

Qualifications

Master of Laws (LLM), (Merit), University College London;
Bar Vocational Course, (Very Competent), BPP, Holborn;
LLB (Hons), University of Bristol

Memberships

The Honourable Society of the Middle Temple